

Dispatch: Ogaden Battle Front
 Wednesday, December 3, 2014

The Ogaden National Liberation Army reported that it killed 14 Ethiopian regime soldiers and wounded 16 in skirmishes in parts of the Ogaden. The Liberation Army further reported that it ambushed and destroyed a Russian Made Ural full of soldiers.

The Ethiopian Army is currently trying to evict agro-pastoralists from their traditional grazing areas in order to clear sites for oil exploration companies. The Army kills the men, rape women and confiscate livestock in order to scare away the rural population from areas it wants to clear.

The Ogaden National Liberation Army harasses and hamper the progress of these Heinous schemes by the Ethiopian regime to disown the Somali people in Ogaden of their land.
